GOD ALL IN ALL

NO.249

THE SPIRIT OF ADOPTION

“For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, “Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God; And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.” (Rom.8: 15-17)

We are heirs with the Son of God. And what did Jesus inherit from the Father...He triumphed over death and received a new eternal body of glory! Paul explains further, “For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only they, but ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.” (Rom.8: 22-23)

The adoption is the setting of a son in his place. It leads to the redemption of our body! It is the time when the son leaves the mother and follows the father. We are called to leave even those who raised us behind and continue walking with the Holy Spirit. The whole creation is groaning and travailing because God's salvation is for the whole creation.

The Seed that has been planted and cultivated in our souls is formed into a new creation man, we are sons and joint-heirs with Christ. We are the pot of dirt in which this Seed can grow. But the Seed must be cultivated. The Word of God within has to take root and be tested through the storms of life and become the strong son of God that it is meant to be.

“But as many as received him, to them gave he

power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe in his name...” (Jn.1: 12) The name of Jesus is His nature and His nature is Son of God and Son of Man. He is Savior and Deliverer. He is Prince of Peace and Everlasting Father. These are all the nature of Jesus, the only begotten Son of God and we are joint-heirs with Him! We inherit His nature. We can look forward to an eternity of life and light. We will triumph over death and corruption even as Jesus has!

We have a mansion or dwelling place prepared in Father's house. The many mansions speak of dwelling places or dimensions of life that we come to in the Father. We know that in the fulness of time, God will be ALL IN ALL. “And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that GOD MAY BE ALL IN ALL.” (I Cor.15: 28)

This means that when all things are submitted to the will of God, ALL OF THE MANY DIMENSIONS OR MANSIONS OF LIFE THAT GOD IS WILL FILL ALL OF HIS CREATION. “All things” speak of His entire creation; nothing is left out and all things are IN the Father. There are many dimensions of life in the Spirit just as there are multitudes of living things in the earth today. So things will not all be the same, but the life of God will be in all things. Bringing all these things to the Father is the work of Christ which is taking place at this time.

Jesus the Son of God is now seated at the right Hand of the Father, waiting while all His enemies are put under His feet (the feet of His Body in the earth). We are at the time when all authority, powers and enemies are being put under the feet of Christ. God will not be All in All until this is accomplished. He is shining His light on many things we thought were of God and are not.

THE DARKNESS OF IMMATURITY

Young children do not understand the inner workings of things so they have to just believe what their parents tell them. They have to be obedient but also as they grow they must be inquisitive and ask questions about the things that have been a puzzle to them. This also applies in the Spirit. This is why Jesus sent us THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH TO LEAD US INTO ALL TRUTHS.

This is also why Jesus emphatically gave us the greatest promise of all, “Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.” (Jn.8: 32) It is when we know the truth of a matter that we are truly set free from the darkness. When we begin our walk in Christ, we are as little children. It is as we grow into mature sons that we are able to understand more and more of His Word.

Up to that time, we are still children in Christ sitting in the market place. In this case the market place is the conglomeration of churches selling their doctrines to the immature and the blind. As children we become attached to these places and it can be difficult to part when the time comes.

However growing up in the Spirit is following a road that sooner or later comes to a fork and a decision. Joshua told Israel, “...choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” (Josh.24: 15)

This is repeated to us every time we reach another level of spiritual growth. Our predestination does not eliminate the tests that we must go through as we mature in the Lord. I have found this to be true in my personal walk and I am sure that many will find they have had the same experiences when it comes to their spiritual walk and “religious perfor-

Jesus once said something that seems to be opposite of His nature. “Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.” (Matt. 10: 34)

Jesus had been speaking about confessing or denying Him before men. This means that when we receive truth from the Spirit, we must cleave to that truth before men. This does not set well with those who hold on to the traditions that we have been a part of. But the truth does not fit into the traditions of men. The tradition keepers who oppose the truth are often in our own family. They mean well and cannot understand why we are now uncomfortable attending their feasts and gatherings.

It was just this week that, after I passed through a test, the Lord spoke these words to me, TRIM THE FAT- THERE IS NO TIME TO WASTE. There is no time to waste because the temple is open in heaven. This means that much truth is being revealed to those who dwell in the heavenlies. It is time to hold on to these truths and move on. The times of catering to the flesh is closing.

The Sun or Son of righteousness is truly arising in us and coming against the darkness that the world had planted in us and all around us. He is exposing the many false ideas and imaginations that we have held about our God. As the beautiful hymn declares, “His truth is marching on...” We must march in step with the truth.

The truth makes us free indeed from the darkness that has held us captive. It is when we know the truth that we are transformed into His true image. Paul calls it “The renewing of our minds.” “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind...” (Rom.12: 2a) We can no longer trust the world's teachings and ways of thinking that we are accustomed to; we must exchange them daily for the teachings of the Holy Spirit. “Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.” (Phil.2:5)

As we mature in the Lord, we are able to understand more of the truths that the Spirit opens to our understanding and we are transformed. We are not transformed by a fairy godmother with a magic wand, we are transformed into His image as we mature through our daily experiences with Him and as our understanding of who He is... increases.

In the darkness of our immaturity, we have seen Him according to the imaginations of our minds. These are being replaced by the truth of who Christ really is and of who we are in Him. When we see Him as He is, we will be like Him. "...when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." (I Jn.3: 2b)

THE GROWING BUDDHA

Recently, the Lord brought back a dream to my attention. I had the dream several years ago and at the time I received the understanding needed for that day, however, as it often happens with prophetic dreams, the Lord enlarges the meaning and opens a greater understanding of the same Word.

In the dream "I was seated on a bench way up high in space. The sky was clear blue and the view was truly amazing. From my position I could see the earth as a small orb below. Then as I looked down to my left, I see something very large seemingly growing out of the earth like a tree grows. It was coming up fairly fast and I see that it is a very large statue of a Buddha. It grows up and up until I can see it clearly. It is now close enough to see details yet far enough that it cannot touch me. I see that there are rope ladders against the statue, from the bottom to the face of the statue. The face is sprinkled with bright little lights and the goal of the people climbing these ladders is to touch the lights on the face. (End of dream)

At the time I knew that the Lord was saying that Eastern religions were growing in the earth and reaching into the space where the word of "Sonship and deliverance from death" is seated. The Buddha represents Eastern Religions and the lights on its face emphasize that these religions are powered by the "mind" and not the "Spirit."

People climbing up the rope ladders to touch the lights on the face demonstrate the effort that one must make to reach the enlightenment which is the goal of these religions. The fact that many people were climbing show that these religions attract many who are drawn by the intellectual side of such teachings.

These "mind and self-will" teachings promote the development of the psychic or soulish side of man. We have seen how such teachings among Christians have become extremely popular. They come under the guise of controlling the difficulties and failures of our daily lives by harnessing man's behavior through mental exercises. These do not lead to eternal life.

Not long ago, a book called "The Secret" was made into a movie and speedily grew in popularity with Christians seeking higher truth. It is one of many self-help books and it caught Oprah Winfrey's attention in a big way. She gave the book and its practices a huge boost when she used her show and her fame as a platform to promote its teachings. The book became a best seller with over nineteen million copies sold world wide at the time and many more since.

The book teaches what they call "The Law of Attraction." This law, they say, determines the complete order of the universe. It is the Law of Like attracts Like. For example, if I think angry thoughts I will attract circumstances that make me angry and vice versa. This concept appeals greatly to the intellect and to those who seek self-power over the circumstances of their lives.

The concept is comparable to climbing the rope ladders to reach and touch the lights on the Buddha's face; it is all mind power and self aggrandizement. It is a form of mind control that reminds one of the teachings of Mary Baker Eddy and Christian Science; mind over matter. It is the game of "think no evil and there will be no evil." It is an exercise like the "ostrich that buries its head in the sand." (This also is a myth) trying to eliminate evil by removing it from our thoughts. These things have no place in the teachings of Jesus.

The concepts of Buddhism and Hinduism (the two prevalent Eastern Religions) are not new, but they are taking root in the West and being mixed with the teachings of Christianity. Buddhism is now becoming popular among western people seeking peace of mind without Christ. Today, such tenets are growing in popularity among Christians who are not grounded in the truth.

The “New Age” movement is built on a concept called “The Power of Thought.” It teaches that one can take control of his or her destiny and can change the way things happen by directing their thoughts. By these means, they can put passion back into their married life and they can even lose unwanted weight. This is all done by the “self” taking control.

The Bible teaches, “For as he (man) thinketh in his heart, so is he: eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.” (Prov.23: 7) There is a great difference between the thoughts of our minds and the thoughts of our hearts. Jesus exposed the hearts and so did the prophets. This is what the verse above says. The man invites you to eat and drink and seems very friendly but in reality this is not who he is. The heart determines the man, not the thoughts that he manipulates to make himself seem friendly.

In my dream, the Lord reveals that practices such as using mind power to attain spiritual growth are infiltrating the teachings of many Christians seeking higher truths. The dream also reveals another scheme that issues out of Eastern Religions teachings. It issues from a branch of Buddhism that is called Taoism. It teaches its followers to strive to enter into the “Universal Mind” or “Shared Consciousness.” This is another form of mind control where one submits to the thoughts of a communal Master Mind; it is not God.

The power of the mind and the power of the senses are also a form of climbing the rope ladders to touch the lights of the Buddha's face. Mind power or power of the senses have nothing to do with the spirit...it comes from the intellect... it does not lead to eternal life. There is only one source of life and that source is Jesus Christ. The Father has given all power unto the Son. The Son is the Word of God. He is the Truth. We can only find Truth as we follow the Spirit of Truth who leads us into all truths.

Is it any wonder that the enemy who works in our carnal minds, finds all kinds of ways to attract people with concepts that may give one the impression of having found the right path for life. The devil is a sly spirit who sets up counterfeits of Christ in the darkened minds of the people. The dream lets us know that these concepts are not very far from us.

FIGHTER JETS FROM CUBA

I remember a dream that the Lord gave me back in the late sixties. “In the dream, fighter jets were coming over us from Cuba and began to drop bombs to destroy us.” Being that we lived in Miami at the time and very close to an hostile Cuba, it would have been easy to interpret this dream literally. But time proved different.

In the dream, the fighter jets were from Cuba...a communist country. The Lord was saying that the ideals of “communism” were going to come and destroy the liberty that the beautiful Word of the Lord had given to His people. I remember several “moves of God” that were targeted at the time.

In the seventies there was one called “Discipleship.” It was begun by charismatic preachers and teachers whose followers were assigned a head “shepherd” or “elder” to take charge of directing their lives. For instance, if they thought of selling their house, they had to clear it with their head shepherd. If they thought of getting married, this also had to be cleared by the Shepherd of that group or cell.

There was a time during my youth in France when the “Communist Party” was trying to assume power. I remember hearing the song they picked as their motto “L'Union fait la Force” which means Unity is Strength.” Communism is a take off from Socialism. It emphasizes a classless society in which government controls the means of production and creates a system of common ownership. It keeps down those who would excel in some way and gives legs to Thomas Jefferson's declaration that "all men are created equal." This is not a verse of Scriptures as many believe. Jesus said, "For ye have the poor always with you..."(Matt. 26: 11a) Those who are able must help the weaker out of the goodness of their hearts and not by government control.

It is good to receive godly counseling when needed, but God was saying that these religious bodies are forms of controlling the people so that, as in communism, none can exceed and succeed. In order to develop and learn from the Spirit of God one has to be free to make decisions. When the decisions are made by so-called superiors, the flesh may feel secure but the guidance of the Holy Spirit within is denied. The Lord has already ordered our steps but as we come out of darkness, we are called to follow the light.

Christians who are dominated remain immature in the ways of the Spirit. Sadly enough this is what many desire. They shun the responsibility of growing up and hearing for themselves. They feel assured that this way they cannot err when in reality they are being stunted. Such practices are rampant among many who assemble themselves in Christ name.

When we hear God's voice we are moving by faith and He teaches us to be sensitive to His moving in our lives. We will then find that He confirms His Word to us in many ways. We just have to be attentive to His Spirit. This is all part of our learning.

Today again, the Lord warns us, "See that you refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve

God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: For our God is a consuming fire." (Heb. 12: 25-29)

This admonition would not be needed if we were not prone, by nature, to deny the Spirit who speaks to our hearts. Indeed, it may shake some of our pet dogmas or put us in danger of losing our "good" reputation among our peers. We could even be expelled from their fold so we may close our hearts to hearing that word; we could even twist the real meaning to fit our hearts' desires.

Through my years in this walk, I have put many of the truths the Spirit showed me on the "shelf." It is good to let the Spirit witness them to us before we embrace them but we should not quickly reject them as "of the devil" and turn away altogether.

As the Lord reveals Himself more and more, we see Him with new light or else He becomes the stone that the builders rejected. "Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone that the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?" (Matt. 21: 42) Spirit is like water, it must flow or it will become stagnant. If we do not keep moving with the Spirit of truth each day, we will become spiritually stagnant and polluted.

How does this fit with the Buddha invasion? The concepts of Taoism and the Universal mind or soul have been creeping among Christians who are seeking higher but whose nature still demands the recognition of man.

When the Lord began to open the interpretation of the Buddha dream in a deeper way, it was a true confirmation of the things that I was seeing in the Spirit. In retrospect I see that through the years He had prepared me for the walk that He placed before me. We do not need to study the depths of Eastern Religions, we only need to hear the voice of God's Spirit and receive the witness of the truth.

The Lord brought back another dream of the past to my attention. This dream was very vivid but difficult to really understand at the time. In it "I had been attending a service and now it is coming to the end and I am standing outside the large open entrance doors looking inside. I see the people preparing to exit. They stand up a row of pews at a time and make their way to the aisles and toward the door. With ardor, they are singing in unison, "We are united, we are one." They repeat the song like a chant over and over again." (end of dream)

Because we have been programed by the deceptive and misleading teachings of popular "Christianity," it is not easy to receive the truths that the Spirit is revealing today. Yet what the Spirit brings to light can no longer be kept on a shelf or swept under a rug.

The people of my dream had been taught that they must strive to become one. This is obvious as they fervently sang "We are united, We are one." Were they striving for unity of "doctrine," unity in the flesh or unity "in Christ?" Did they really think that by gathering themselves and chanting the words "We are united, we are one" over and over again they were accomplishing that goal?

Could they ever accept that true unity in Christ is contrary to the unity that is conjured up by man's efforts to make themselves think alike and be alike? What if true unity in Christ comes from the fact that we are each different? Paul likened our relationship in Christ to parts of the human body.

From that example we must conclude that even though we are one in Him as His body, we each serve very different functions. Indeed, it is our differences that unites us as one body. Another example to consider is a city. There are many merchants in a city and each contributes to the needs of the citizens. But each has a totally different product. If all were bakers only, where would we get our fruit and vegetables? So it is in Christ. We are not united because we all think the same and do the same thing; we are united by our differences.

Each organ and member of our body accomplishes a different necessary function, yet each takes its command from the same head and each has the goal of keeping the body alive and well.

THE GREAT DECEPTION

The Lord of hosts is the Lord of the armies of heaven. The armies are the overcomers along with the angels that are working together to defeat the corruption that is in the world. By the work of Calvary, Jesus defeated the works of the devil in the heavenly realm. "And there was war in heaven : Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." (Rev.12: 7-9)

Natural man lives in the realm of the earth where the dragon has been cast out. The dragon keeps natural man under the great deception that this earthly life is forever. When a loved one is taken to the other side, we often feel defeated. Some pay large sums of money to preserve their remains by deep freezing them with the hope of being brought back to this life later (cryogenics). Men are ever trying to find eternal life by their own efforts. In that way they have no need of God and no need of faith and they feel secure.

Popular Christianity teaches that the soul is immortal and will live forever in heaven or in hell after death. This has a smidgen of truth but it is a lie. When God formed Adam, He blew the breath of life in his nostrils and the man became a living soul. Thus the breath of life is the life of the soul; it is spirit. But there was a condition for that soul life. God said to Adam, "...Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die." (Gen. 2: 16b-17)

God was true to His Word. Both Adam and Eve passed from being "living souls" unto being dead souls. Adam and Eve lived, as man and wife in the flesh, many years after God pronounced them dead but their life was no longer in the spirit of the soul; it was in the blood. The blood is the life of the flesh and it is corruptible. This is why to preserve a corpse, the blood has to be removed and replaced with embalming fluid.

Adam and Eve's bodies lived many more years but their souls had surely died. They had only the life of the flesh which deteriorates and gets closer to the grave each day. They were no longer connected to God's Spirit and they could not hear His voice. Later, even Seth who was one who called upon the name of the Lord, and all who followed after him were dead souls. From that day forward every human was in the darkness of death. They all needed a Savior and without a Savior they could call upon His name but they no longer had life; they were no longer immortal.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD

“And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.” (I Jn.4: 14) Jesus is the Savior of the world. He is the Savior of all men and He is the ONLY one given to men with the power to save their souls from eternal death. Jesus has triumphed over death and hell.

After His resurrection, Jesus proclaimed this most important truth. “I am he that liveth, and was dead (I conquered death in the flesh by the power of resurrection); and, behold, I am alive for evermore (I obtained eternal life in the body), Amen; AND HAVE THE KEYS OF HELL AND OF DEATH. (I am in charge of what happens after your die.)” (Rev.1: 18)

The word “HELL” in the Bible is the word Hades which Strong Concordance interprets as “The place for departed souls. The abode or state of the dead. A place on the other side.” Jesus has the keys of that place. When one dies without the Lord, the devil does not take hold of them and throw them in hell... When one dies they face Jesus; He is the One in charge.

If one dies without accepting Jesus as their Savior, they will be sent to Hades, the place of the dead. They will go through trials and teachings to bring them to repentance. Does Jesus say, “Sorry it is too late” and damn them to eternal torment or could He yet extend mercy and deal with them to convict them of their sins and of His forgiveness? Many cannot receive the idea that Jesus is still the Savior after death. Is this not why He seized the keys of hell and death from the devil?

The Lord who died for the sins of the world and asked the Father to forgive those who were pounding nails in his flesh is indeed the Savior of the world on both sides of the veil. I had heard others talk about that but it was when the Lord revealed this to me personally by revelation and by the Scriptures that I rejoiced at the good news. He also confirmed it through vivid dreams.

Jude wrote about the wicked, “They are spots in your feasts of charity...clouds without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shames; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.” (Jude Vs.12-13)

This is a terrible picture, but Jude continues, “And Enoch also the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these saying, Behold the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute JUDGMENT UPON ALL, AND TO CONVINCe ALL THAT ARE UN-GODLY AMONG THEM OF ALL THEIR UN-GODLY DEEDS which they have committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” (Vs.14-15)

The One who declares that He has the keys of hell and death is coming to judge and to CONVINCe ALL of their ungodly deeds and speeches. If He is going to convince ALL of them that includes all those who have died in their sins. This means that He is showing all of them that they are guilty and need to repent. This is what He did to us when we were called He showed us our need for repentance; in Adam we are all found guilty. In Adam we are all the “walking dead.”

In order to be saved from this death, one must repent. Jesus in His resurrection glory comes with ten thousands of His saints, which the Diablot translates, (In myriads of Himself) to face all the ungodly and convict them that in Adam they are totally guilty of all their sins.

The One who cried "Father forgive them" is about to appear in His saints...His sons...to do the work of judging those who are worthy of death and to turn them around. One of my husband's brothers was an unbeliever. He came against us because of our "religion." After he died I had this dream, "I saw him in the morgue. His body laying face down on a gurney surrounded by "doctors" in white coats. They turned him around and now I could see that he was breathing. They were grooming him and trimming his hair and mustache." The dream was letting me know that he was still in the place of the dead (Hades or Hell) but he was being groomed and turned around (repentance). He was attended by angelic beings or perhaps sons of God.

My own brother denied the Lord and proudly called himself an Atheist. After he passed away at the age of 29 I had this dream, "I saw a very large empty room. In a far corner of the room I see my brother. He is sitting on the floor weeping and agonizing with his face in his hands. He is dressed in a wine-color suit. I wanted very much to go comfort him but was told that was not possible."

The Lord showed me the agony that my brother's soul was going through. His body was in the grave. He was in a place being dealt with for turning away from the Lord in this life but he was dressed in a wine-color suit. This denotes that he was clothed in the new life of the kingdom. But first he must go through a time of being convicted for his sins. He was alone in the place of agony to face His need for a Savior. Repentance is always necessary to be saved.

The Lord who hung in agony on the cross to pay for the sins of the world has seized the keys of hell away from the devil. His purpose is to set the captive free. This is the deliverance that the sons of God are called to accomplish. These are the greater works that Jesus spoke about.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." (Jn.14: 12) We know that at this time, no man has done greater works than Jesus. Was He not talking about the works of deliverance that the creation is groaning and travailing for? Jesus reached beyond the grave when He called Lazarus back to life. Bringing souls out of hell and death is part of the greater works of deliverance that sons of God are call unto.

The Son of God has been revealing Himself from within His people. It has been a gradual appearing. "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." (Matt. 24: 27)

As we know "lightning" from a storm does not come out of the east to shine unto the west so this describes the rising of the sun. Jesus Christ is the Son who rises over our darkness to give us life and light. He is the brightness of the rising Sun that eliminates our darkness so that we begin to understand all things that pertain unto life and godliness.

No one tells it better than Peter, "According as his divine power hath given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue. Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." (II Pet.1: 3-4)

And again, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time." (I Pet. 1: 3-5) WE ARE KEPT BY THE POWER OF GOD THROUGH FAITH! And His salvation is being revealed to us now for it is the last time. This is the last time!!

Because of His love, Jackie Caporaso
